

In Memoriam

David M. Schriver

David M. Schriver, 71, of New Oxford, died Monday, May 11, 2015 at Hanover Hospital. He was the husband of Cindy L. (Krug) Schriver.

David was born July 30, 1943 in Hanover, the son of the late Jacob M. and Mary E. (Trimmer) Schriver.

David retired from Caterpillar in 1995 after 30 years of service, and was a Deputy Conservation Officer with the Pa. Game Commission for 36 years. He was a life member of the New Oxford Social and Athletic Club, and was a member of the McSherrystown Fish and Game, East Berlin Fish and Game, Green Springs Rod and Gun Club, the NRA, and Hebron Lodge #465 F&AM in New Oxford, where he was also a past Master.

In addition to his wife Cindy, David is survived by three sons, Craig M. Schriver and his wife Alison of East Berlin, James D. Schriver and his wife Melissa of McSherrystown, and Lee A. Schriver and his wife Amy of McSherrystown; four grandchildren, Morgan Schriver, Joshua Schriver, Jacob Schriver, and Evan Schriver; two stepsons, Jesse Orewiler, and Justin Lebo; a stepdaughter, Tami Feeser; and a brother, Kenneth H. Schriver of York.

Following cremation, a visitation will be held on Wednesday, May 13, 2015 from 6-8 p.m. at the Feiser Funeral Home Inc., 302 Lincolnway West, New Oxford, with a Masonic Service at 8 p.m. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Green Springs Rod and Gun Club, 121C Green Springs Rd, Hanover, PA 17331. Memories may be shared at www.feiserfuneralhome.com.
